Description

---

Compressed gas cleaner, non-flammable, very economical. DRUCKLUFT 67 is based on a pure, liquefied gas with low global warming potential (GWP = 7). The dry, oil-free compressed gas leaves no residue and is non-flammable according to Directive 2008/47/EC. The spray can with attachable spray tube allows precise blowing of dust and dirt. The well-balanced spray system produces a medium-strong spray pressure and can therefore be used without problems, especially on sensitive components. Features, benefits: - Dry, oil-free compressed gas, leaves no residue. - Non-flammable, safe and environmentally compatible. - Balanced, medium-strength spray system, very high yield. Examples of use: - Blowing out dust and dirt in electronics and precision mechanics. - Can also be used without problems on sensitive components such as optics and sensors.
