

DURAN® Threaded tube, GL 32

Product Images

---

Description

DURAN® threaded tube, GL 32 DURAN® threaded glass tubes with standardized GL thread to DIN 12216 are used for attaching to glass apparatus. The nominal size refers to the outside diameter, measured on the thread. Available in 5 sizes. The available accessories allow a wide range of applications. Special features and advantages: With standardized GL thread according to DIN 12216 The nominal size refers to the outer diameter, measured on the thread (available in 5 sizes) Safe and easy closing as well as loosening of glass-glass components Grease-free working Glass article for further processing Application: For attaching to glass apparatus, Installation in glass apparatus and equipment, Wide range of applications, due to available accessories.

Additional Information

|                      |         |
|----------------------|---------|
| No.                  | SD-2249 |
| Manufacturer (Brand) | DURAN   |

